Case Title: Claritymask, Inc. v. Schedule A Defendants
1:23-cv-08877-LJL
Re: Request to exceed page deadline

Dear Judge Liman:

We represent Plaintiff, Claritymask, Inc., in this matter. We write to request leave to exceed the 25-page limit for motions in connection with Plaintiff's Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order.

Good cause exists for the requested relief. This case involves claims involving three types of intellectual property – trademark, copyright, and right of publicity. It also involves claims relating to numerous products sold by numerous sellers. Finally, the request seeks relief of a material nature and addresses bond requirements, service of process, and the restraining of assets. Plaintiff seeks to make a comprehensive showing as to all of the above issues and it is respectfully submitted that it will need 35 pages to do so.

In light of the above, the Plaintiff respectfully requests leave to exceed the page limits and file a brief of up to 35 pages in connection with its TRO request.

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/ Scott Alan Burroughs
